Diversified Project Management Completes Renovation Project for Gunderson Dettmer

NEWTON, MA. (April 5, 2010)- Diversified Project Management, Inc. (DPM), a Newton, MA-based Owner's Representative firm providing Programming, Pre-Construction, Project Management, Construction Administration, FF&E Coordination and Move-Planning Services, announced today that it has completed Gunderson Dettmer's renovation project at its new location in Waltham, MA.

The California-based business law firm was relocating approximately 70 employees and as a result, retained DPM to manage the required tenant improvement project for the new location at 850 Winter Street. The newly renovated, 31,000 square feet of space was outfitted with all new furniture and includes a high density file area, a 2,000 square foot voice & data room and extensive AV equipment throughout all meeting spaces.

The DPM team consisting of Project Executive, Tony Zulkeski and Senior Project Manager, Rhonda Thomas acted as the firm's local "eyes & ears" and was the primary point of contact for Gunderson Dettmer's local and West coast management team. As owner's representative, DPM provided construction administration services, which included site visits, value engineering, leadership of project meetings and all payment requisition and change order review.

Diversified has previously managed projects for a number of legal institutions including, Goulston & Storrs, Sally & Fitch and Rose Chinitz & Rose.
